

EDITORIAL

Editor: Dr. Ranjith Dayaratne, Asian School of Knowledge.

	EDITORIAL	i
Unravelling the Meanings of Vernacular Settlements Through Linguistic Threads: Echoes of Ngapak Dialect in Indonesia		1
Djoko Sutrisno, Martina, Nuraidar Agus, Deni Karsana, Dewi Juliastuty, Herianah, Wahyu Damayanti, Siti Jamzaroh, Abd. Rasyid & Nurasia Natsir		1-18
The Impact of Modernization on the Heritage of Vernacular Houses of Tehran, Iran		2
Shabnam Golkarin, Nuran Kara Pilehvarian, Huriye Gurdalli		19-46
Building Effective Local Leadership and Community Organizations to Strengthen the Involvement of Indigenous Communities in Ecotourism: Insights from the Batek Community from Malaysia		3
Asmawi Ibrahim, Ahmed Ahmed Olaitan, Ahmad Aizuddin Md Rami, Wan Nor Jazmina, Tuan Muhammad Zukri T.S., Wan Nor Azilawanie Tun Ismail, Adi Syahid M.A., Mohamad Pirdaus Yusoh, Mohd Syaiful Nizam Abu Hassan		47-57
Landscapes of Unique Vernacular Communities: Changing Social Geography and Cultural Practices of the Kodagu Community, Karnataka, India		4
Surekha Ramineni, Monalisa Bhardwaj, Sudha Kumari G		58-73
Relevance of Vernacular in the Contemporary World: Engaging the Local Wisdom Rasa Pangrasa in the Management of the Film Festival Pelajar Jogja in Indonesia		5
Deddy Setyawan, Sri Rochana Widyastutieningrum & Handriyotopo, Handriyotopo		74-81
Autonomous Vernacular Transformation in the Resettlements of Fishing Communities: Insights from Nakna Ashrayan in Bangladesh		6
Abdullah Al Noman		82-95
Visual Arts in the Vernacular Settlements: Aesthetic Values and Significance of Beliefs in the Komburongo Ritual Tool in Sabah, Malaysia		7
Salbiah Kindoyop & Low Kok On		96-113
Cultural Interactions in Sunda Karawitan Vernacular Music Practice: Forms of Cultural Adaptations among the Chinese Community at Padepokan Pasundan Asih, Bandung, Indonesia		8
Asep Wasta, Tjetjep Rohendi Rohidi, Agus Cahyono & Udi Utomo		114-125