

International Society for the Study of Vernacular Settlements

EDITORIAL Editor: Dr. Ranjith Dayaratne	1
Documentation of Indigenous Craftsmanship, Culture and Traditions of Boat Making Craft of Uru at the Malabar Coast, India Manali Bhadra	1 1-16
Improving Life in Urban Vernacular Settlements: An Assessment of Living Conditions in Resettlement Housing in Bangladesh Imran Hossain Foishal, Kowshik Roy, Sk. Hassan Al-Tanbin,	2 17-39
Towards Reviving Vernacular Architecture of India: Indigenous Building Traditions of Gujarat, Arunachal Pradesh and Rajasthan Nandini Halder, Deepak Kumar	3 40-67
Manifestations of Cultural and Vernacular Built Heritage Around Canals: Insights from the Ganga Canal Route in India Sukriti Setia, Mohd Afzal Khan, S. Manavvi & Ram Sateesh Pasupuleti	4 68-97
Employing Indigenous Craft Traditions for the Contemporary World: Opportunities for Innovation and Market Expansion of Sawantwadi Wooden Toys in India Omkar Sadashiv Rane, Suyash Khaneja	5 98-112
Preserving Traditional Art in Vernacular Settlements: Insights from Rapa'i Geurimpheng of Aceh, Indonesia Ahmad Syai, Muhammad Jazuli, Wadiyo, Udi Utomo	6 113-126
Making of Modern Vernacular Architecture in Aboriginal Australia: Insights from the Dugalunji Camp Paul Memmott	7 127-140
evival of Traditional Bahraini Architecture: Public Perceptions and their Impact on Contemporary Projects Sara Husain Jawad Allaith	8 141-154
The Role of Construction Methods in Shaping Neo-Vernacular Architecture: Insights from the Master Builder Nari Gandhi of India Pratheeksha, Vibha Gajjar & Sujan Umaraniya	9 155-173
Understanding the Notion of Dwelling for a Semi-nomadic Way of Life: The case of Maaldharis of Kutch, Gujarat Heli Chirag Patel & Aparna	10 174-193